ALTERNATIVE TV	DARK PLACES	Mark Perry has remained the sole surviving original member and driving force. Alternative TV have been responsible for around fifteen albums since their formation, with the last one, Opposing Forces, from 2015 on Public Domain Records, proving to be their strongest thus far with its marrying of igneous rock, idiosyncratic touches, barbed commentary and occasionally seething undercurrents of dark psychedelic noise.	12"	1

Angelika Express	Best of and Rarities (Limited 10")	Ingo Donot (Donots): „Alles kann, alles muss. Schnottige Texte, sympathische Mittelfingerei, clevere Melodien, Chöre, eine geschmackvolle Gästeliste und alles dabei dann so dermaßen knackig und eingängig, dass hier weder die D-Punker noch die Indie-Popper meckern können. Angelika Express regeln und bleiben – richtig – großartig und stabil!“ Campino (Die Toten Hosen): „Ein tolles Album! Hohes Tempo, gewaltige Energie, schöne Melodien und jede Menge Texte zum Mitsingen. Nach dem Dom der zweite Grund, vielleicht auch einmal nach Köln zu fahren?“	Vinyl 10"	1

BURDON, ERIC & THE ANIMALS	NIGHTS IN SAN FRANCISCO	The whole of side one is an uninterrupted symphony of R&B. Just listen to the two versions of the absurdly great "C. C. Rider". On the other hand side two is most of their psychedelic material. Compared to the previous Animals albums, this just seems to pack a little more punch than any of the others with the possible exception of Animal Tracks.	LP	1
BYRDS	THE BYRDS	Side One contains broadcast recordings taken from TV and radio between December 1965 and March 1967. But it is Side Two that is of great historical significance for Byrdmaniacs. The Winterland show from December 1967 offers a glimpse of the Byrds as a three-piece band. David Crosby and Michael Clarke had left in the summer, but Clarke returned for this concert. The recording quality is not great but the sound is unlike any other Byrds recording, with McGuinn's 6-string Gretsch powering the group along on hard rock versions of their hits and others such as Miles Davis's Milestones and Jimmy Reed's Baby, What You Want Me To Do.	LP	1

COACH HOP	I LIKE TAYLOR SWIFT	3 minutes of perfect pop gushing rock'n'roll wonderment. Coach Hop is the new outfit from natty frontman Charlie Honderick. Previously to be found in the cockpit with festival-slayers-in-waiting 'Hamptons', Charlie is the possessor of a rich, at times almost John Grant-esque baritone and a stage demeanour not unlike fellow American Dave Lee Roth. Now teaming up with producer Natt Webb, Charlie has found the perfect foil for his songwriting. This is celebratory music that cut loose from any sense of self consciousness several hundred feet ago and it's highly likely you'll want to climb on board with him.	7"	1

GIANT SAND	PROVISIONS	White vinyl. 1000 copies. Includes DL. 23 years into a career that includes releases under a host of nom de plumes, Howe Gelb returned to Giant Sand after a four-year hiatus for 'proVISIONS'. The result was a slice of typically off-the-cuff beat-styled pontificating set to music that defied boundaries – there a country-tinged ballad nestles next to a swing-styled croon, a rambunctious guitar holds court and intricate wordy couplets emote before echoey melancholy takes charge courtesy of a wailing steel guitar. Polly Harvey, Neko Case, M Ward and Isobell Campbell are part of the party, swaying breezily with Howe as old friends.	LP	1

JANSCH, BERT	A RARE CONUNDRUM	Gold vinyl. 1000 copies. Includes CD with bonus tracks. Though recorded in England, Bert's time in America recording the preceding 'L.A. Recorded at London's Air Studios, the production - steered by Jansch and new collaborator Rod Clements - has a wonderful lightness of touch. Includes 3 additional non-album tracks as a download.	LP	1

TELEVISION PERSONALITIES	CLOSER TO GOD	Dan Treacy provides the antidote to the opening of the ill-fated Disneyland Paris and the first McDonald's in China – it's a white knuckle ride through his innermost hopes and fears with off stage giggling, half heard dialogue and feedback that sounds like an opera is expiring in an adjoining L-shaped room. 'Closer To God' is a spiritual rollercoaster that sounds as poignant and pressing as ever. Remastered 2LP on marbled black and white vinyl. 1500 copies	LP	2
TELEVISION PERSONALITIES	PRIVILEGE	Remastered on black and white marbled vinyl. 1500 copies. Includes DL. 1989: It's nine years since John Lennon died, and five years since The Television Personalities have had an album released. Fire Records sign the latest incarnation of the TVPs and let them loose in a proper studio. Dan Treacy's muse is overcome by the versatility of Swatch watches and Back To The Future II, he doesn't allow the songs on 'Privilege' to bend to temptation. The world is still wrong; it's still unreal; as evidenced by the guest list at 'Salvador Dali's Garden Party'. Elsewhere there's a hint of '60s soap operas, from Cathy Come Home to The Wicker Man. The End	Introspection / Retrospection (Coloured Vinyl)	2 LP coloured vinyl, ingatefold sleeve with inner sleeves • In 1965 The End arose from the glowing embers of the earlier Tuxedos, Innocents and Original Topics, and like many of their contemporaries evolved into a psychedelic group. Subsequently they re-invented themselves as blues rock outfit Tucky Buzzard in late 1969. Along the way, they won the support and patronage of the Rolling Stones' Bill Wyman, who in 1968 produced their sole album for Decca, "Introspection", the first LP in this set. Wyman also co-wrote their signature tune, the psychedelic classic "Shades Of Orange", although the band wrote all the rest of their material. • This 2 LP set pairs "Introspection" with "Retrospection" an LP of outtakes from the album sessions issued briefly on vinyl in the mid-90s. VARIOUS ARTISTS	NEW YORK SOUL 67	Like its predecessor album which covered 1966, this LP brings together the best soul tracks recorded in New Orleans in 1967. At this time Southern soul was in the ascendant but as usual the musical background of the Crescent City – jazz, R & B, the Caribbean – ensured that music recorded there always had a rhythmic twist and arrangements all of their own. No national hits here, just the sound of the streets. The heartbeat of the city.	LP	1
VARIOUS ARTISTS	SOHO SCENE 60 - JAZZ GOES MOD	By early 1960, the first waves of Ornette Coleman's New York musical tsunami had begun to reach British shores, and the local model of "free-form" then being pioneered by Jamaican altoist Joe Harriott found more critical acceptance than its counterpart played by Coleman, but Harriott a maverick, and would have little direct impact on the work of the majority of his contemporaries. Elsewhere though it was the template of the Jazz Couriers and their Hard Bop-derived modus operandi that continued to set the style for local modern jazz groups and in its wake came several worthy successors; the MJ6 featuring Stan Tracey; "The Quintet" headed by Ronnie Scott and Jimmy Deuchar; the Bert Courtley/Ronnie Ross Jazztet; the Ken Wray/Bobby Wellins Quintet; Allan Ganley and Keith Christie's New Jazzmakers; the Jazz Five	LP	1

VARIOUS ARTISTS	TAMLA MOTOWN - LIVE IN EUROPE 1965	Dusty Springfield hosted this impromptu TV special to promote the Tamla Motown artists that were taking part in their first ever European tour in 1965. Remember, Motown had only just launched its label in Europe earlier that year and the artists were known only to a small number of soul aficionados , so ticket sales for the tour were very poor. Mary Wilson recalls that the acts referred to it as the ghost tour; sales were so slow that they had to draft in Georgie Fame to headline halfway through the tour.	LP	1
VARIOUS ARTISTS	TEXAS SOUL 67	As with previous sets, you may not know the singers, but you'll surely love the music, because on here you will find tracks for the feet and songs for the heart – truly all the best 67 sounds from the Lone Star state.	LP	1

VARIOUS ARTISTS	MIGHTY INSTRUMENTALS R&B-STYLE 1963	Cracking instrumentals from 1963, none of which ever got so much as a sniff at the charts. It's mostly guitar-led rockers with fiery picking from Roy Buchanan and Jimmy Spruill and some early fuzzbox action from Lou Josie of the Ho-Dads. Up in New York, King Curtis is blowing out on the Rinkydinks (later adopted as the Soul Train theme). From Eastside, Los Angeles, The Mixtures try out their new Wurliizer electric on the M. G.'s Chinese Checkers. There's Louisiana sounds from The Mighty Trojans and James Booker and over in the Mid-West, we've got Little Milton Meddlin' and Jimmy McCracklin Trottin'.	LP	1
VARIOUS ARTISTS	NEW ORLEANS SOUL 1967	Whatever the approach, New York tried it all and labels both large and tiny hustled sales from willing punters and jukeboxes. Over the years the two bands have gone on to build a formidable reputation for releasing many outstanding records, including their second collaboration after Aquarian Downer; the stunning 'GNOD Drop-out with White Hills II'.
